December 28, 1989

NEXT MEETING: THURSDAY, JANUARY 11, 1990. 6:00 pm social hour, 7:00 pm dinner at Officers Mess, Sand Point Naval Station. MENU: Beef Stroganoff or Whole Cornish Game Hen. Write your choice, your name and the names of any guests on the enclosed reservation card and mail it.

JANUARY 11, 1990 PROGRAM: January's speaker will be Alan Nolan. Alan T. Nolan will talk about the generalship of Robert E. Lee, which is one aspect of a study he is currently completing for publication. Mr. Nolan is widely known as the author of "The Iron Brigade," generally regarded as one of the best Civil War unit histories written. The Iron Brigade consisted of regiments from the midwest that fought in Virginia with the Army of the Potomac throughout the war. Mr. Nolan is a member of the Indiana Historical Society, a founder of the Indianapolis Civil War Round Table and a director of the Association for the Preservation of Civil War Sites; he is an attorney in Indianapolis.

OUR THANKS to Dr. James F. Morgan and Marc DuVall for their thorough and informative discussion of Civil War money at the December 1989 meeting.

FEBRUARY 8, 1990 PROGRAM: We will have a series of short presentations, including "junk on the bunk," a demonstration of Civil War soldiers' equipment by Terry Lattin. Other participants will be announced. Definite volunteers should contact Pat Brady soon; we have had a number of indefinite volunteers, and need some upgrades to "definite" status.

NOMINATIONS AND VOLUNTEERS FOR NEXT YEAR'S OFFICERS are being sought now. Please speak to Loren Mann (or any other of the current officers or directors) if you are willing to serve on the nominating committee or wish to nominate someone else or to volunteer yourself to be considered as an officer or director for the September 1990 through May 1991 season. In an effort to attract more volunteers, the salary for officers will be doubled next year (2x00=0). We would really like to see a few new faces come forward to share the work that keeps the organization going.

BATTLEFIELD PRESERVATION: Please support the Association for the Preservation of Civil War Sites, P.O. Box 1862, Frederickburg, Virginia 22402, $20 membership. Led by Gary Gallagher and Bob Krick, this is an excellent and effective organization. Make known your opposition to the new American Legion Post 235 building in front of the Grove House, Antietam Battlefield; write to the Editor, Hagerstown Morning Herald, Summit Ave., Hagerstown, MD 21740. In addition, speak to Ken Bertrand for information about the Dr. Samuel A. Mudd Society.

DON'T THROW OUR TREASURY DOWN THE DRAIN! If you send in the reservation card to reserve a place but then have a last-minute change of plans and are unable to attend, please call Dio Richardson (523-8969) and let him know so he can change the count with the Officers Mess. The Mess bills our Round Table for no-shows for whom dinners were reserved, unless there is prior cancellation. We lost a sizable sum because of the unusually high number of no-shows at the December meeting.

PAY UP NOW OR BE DISCHARGED. This is the last bulletin to be mailed to those who have not paid their dues, and the last roster to carry the names of those who have not paid.
